Welcome

Welcome to a Special Edition of our Limewoods Magazine to bring you news of our upcoming St Oswald's Feast Day Event which is taking place on Sunday 7th August 2022.

Did you know that in Anglo Saxon times, Bardney was famous for its day of celebration, which was known as St Oswald's Feast? Traditionally it was held on the 5th August and St Lawrence's Church continues to hold an annual service on a Sunday close to this day. Should you wish to attend, this year's service is taking place at 10am on Sunday 7th August on the village green in front of Bardney's Alms-houses.

Since hosting our First St Oswald's Feast Day Event in 2021, Bardney Group Parish Council are looking forward to hosting this years event and welcoming you to many more in the years to come!

Past Successes

In 2021, our very first St Oswald's Feast Day Event hosted on our community land in Bardney proved to be a great success!

Attendees included Blues Boy Kings, Hedgehog Reality, Itchy Fingers, Charlie Russell and Market Rasen Ukulele Band. Displays and demonstrations also took place from Scott Brewer Kickboxing Academy and Alex Law Zumba. We also had some fantastic animal competitors and attendees!

About the Bands

Hedgehog Reality are a two-piece band from south-east Lincolnshire playing self-penned indie pop. They use guitar, bass guitar, BeatBuddy with Liz and Terry Martin on vocals. They write and perform their own eclectic mix of pop/rock.

Hey Dude are a Lincoln based four piece playing covers of The Beatles, Stones, Eagles, Small Faces and other great bands from years gone by. Well known around the Lincoln pub and club circuit, they have just returned from a successful festival appearance in Germany.

Blues Boy Kings are an exciting blues band performing new original material. All of the songs feature great guitar work, sensitive lyrics with a passionate delivery. The sound is bluesy but modern, rootsy yet current.

About the Bands

Astra are made up of four Bardney residents who recently started playing together just for fun. They will be playing their first ever gig at the St Oswald's Feast Day and will play covers from artists such as David Bowie, Rory Gallagher, Van Morrison and The Kaser Chiefs.

Bolt-Ons are a three piece band based out of Bardney playing well known and not so well known rock and blues covers. Before lock down they performed all over the county as the Three Blokes Blues Band and have now emerged with a new drummer as the Bolt-Ons.

The Javelins were formed in Bardney in 1962, and are reforming after more than 50 years to play a special one off set at the St Oswald's Feast Day. Their set list will include songs from the Small Faces, Buddy Holly, Them, Dusty Springfield and Wee Willie Harris.

Stall Holders & Activities

I'm Vicky, I run Bookie Wookie Doo Dah. I'm A 37 year old mum of one son. As a child and teenager, escaping into a good book, helped me through some difficult times.

Developing a love of reading, not only assisted me in my education, but definitely helped my struggles with dyslexia and ADHD. Reading from a young age, definitely helped me develop strong reading skills, despite my challenges and is 100% the reason I achieved my degree with honours. I'm a Schools, educational and SEN specialist, with a real love of books and reading. I'm here to help find the perfect books for your children or pupils and can run a fully stocked School book fair, at your local School, from my shop stock. Always up for a good chat about everything Usborne, feel free to get in touch directly at bookiewookiedoodah@gmail.com
