Complaints & Compliments:

Clerks report

- Elections - application forms available. Need to find out electoral number from WLDC (clerk cannot assist). Dispute about purdah deadline. Different councils advising different dates. WLDC MO has given 12.04.19. However, LALC to confirm it should be 26.03.19
- Purdah kicks in 26.03.19. Therefore, FCM's will change - cannot bring any new or contentious items for consideration. Clerk and Chairman's reports must be kept to a minimum and no invitations can be offered to the DC or CC Cllrs.
- Two people have enquired about becoming Cllrs
- Speedwatch training for Bardney takes place tomorrow evening. All attendees must be registered with the Bardney Scheme
- Continued problems with external noise in the office. The air conditioning unit operates 24/7 due to a broken central heating system, should be repaired next week. Have been raising issue with the Fire Brigade since November, when the weather is cold the unit vibrates so much that the office floor vibrates.
- Assisting parishioners in Southrey over breach in planning condition, this has been ongoing since November, the Enforcement Manager involved
- Apparently LCC have a Highways Liaison Officer to deal with Parish Council issues - other PC's not aware either!
- Lincolnshire Life to do a piece on Bardney for March edition. Did positive plug on the area.
- Currently have a river of effluent in the dyke next to the River Witham at BB moorings. AW and EA involved - found by John whilst litter picking. EA concerned as pollution about to join the River Witham.
- Looking in to allocating a flood warden again
- Two grit bins have been re-instated at Bardney Bridge, BGPC joined with BPC to support Mary Conyers campaign.

- HMRC payroll issue confirmed as computer glitch
- Allotment group have agreed constitution.
- Bardney Bridge update.
 - To close from 15th but re-open for Easter weekend
 - To allow one side of the causeway to be used for parking
 - To work 24/7 wherever possible to be painted two shades of green to link to historical colours of GNR

Cllr J Zubic requested that, if possible, an artist impression of Bardney Bridge be made available at the electors' meetings so that residents can see what the bridge will look like when completed.
